LD 8802 - Leadership Theory and Research Design

DOCTORAL-LEVEL COURSE

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Students examine the theories and concepts of leadership through the filters of sociology, organizational theory, and public service leadership. This course examines the foundational underpinnings of the processes of leading within an organization. Guided by a biblical worldview the course investigates the ethical, and practical dimensions of leadership. Additionally, students are introduced to the various aspects of research design when conducting academic research and begin the development of an academic Literature Review.
